1. CORPORATE INFORMATION

GobiMin Inc. (the "Company" or "GobiMin") is a limited liability company incorporated in Canada under the Canada Business Corporations Act. It is listed on the TSX Venture Exchange, having the symbol GMN-V, as a Tier 2 mining issuer. Its registered office is situated at Suite 1250, 120 Adelaide Street West, Toronto, Ontario M5H 1T1, Canada.

The Company together with its subsidiaries (collectively the "Group") is engaged in the development and exploration of mineral properties mainly in the Xinjiang Uygur Autonomous Region ("Xinjiang") of the People's Republic of China ("China").

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

These condensed Interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34, Interim Financial Reporting ("IAS 34"), with disclosure and accounting policies consistent with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB").

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policies applied in these condensed interim financial statements are consistent with the policies disclosed in Notes 2 and 3 of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012, except for the change referred to the Note 4 below. Accounting principles for interim consolidated financial statements do not conform in all respects to the disclosures required for annual consolidated financial statements and, accordingly, these condensed interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2012. In the opinion of management, all adjustments considered necessary for the fair presentation of results for the periods presented have been reflected in these unaudited condensed interim financial statements. These adjustments consist only of normal recurring adjustments. Operating results for these interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full financial year ending December 31, 2013.

4. CHANGES IN SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Group applies for the first time the following new standards and amendments to IFRS effective as of January 1, 2013:

IAS 12 Income Taxes – Amendments regarding Deferred Tax
IFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements
IFRS 12 Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities
IFRS 13 Fair Value Measurements
IAS 28 Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures
IFRS 11 Joint Arrangements
IFRIC 20 Stripping Costs in the Production Phase of a Surface Mine
Amendments to IAS7 Disclosure of Financial Instruments

The amendment IAS 1 Presentation of Items of Other Comprehensive Income that became effective as of 1 July 2012 is also applied by the Group for the first time in the condensed interim financial statements. The adoption of these amendments to IFRS did not result in substantial changes to the Group's accounting policies and amounts reported for the current period and prior years.

(Express in United States Dollars)

The Group has not early adopted any other standard, interpretation or amendment that has been issued but is not yet effective.

5. CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash and cash equivalents held in different locations:

(ii) The weighted average remaining contractual life for the options outstanding as at March 31, 2013 was 1.34 years.
(iii) The range of exercise price for options outstanding as at March 31, 2013 was $0.60 to $1.06.

c) Share-Based Payments

There were no options granted during the period. The Company determines fair value of the employee stock options using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. In determining the fair value of these employee stock options, the following assumptions were used:

Grant date	Nov 23, 2011	Nov 23, 2011	July 7, 2010	July 7, 2010	Aug 25, 2008
Exercise Price (CAD)	0.6000	0.6000	0.7900	0.7900	1.1000
Expected life (year)	3	5	3	5	5
Expected volatility	53%	53%	48%	48%	90%
Dividend yield	-	-	-	-	-
Discount rate	0.40%	0.88%	1.01%	1.79%	3.22%
Forfeiture rate	0%	0%	0%	0%	0%

The expected life of the stock options is based on historical data and current expectations and is not necessarily indicative of exercise patterns that may occur. The expected volatility reflects the assumptions that the historical volatility over a period similar to the life of the options is indicative of future trends, which may not necessarily be the actual outcome either.

16.7 Basic and Diluted Losses Per Share

Total future minimum lease payables	280,784	337,624

23. SEGMENTED INFORMATION

The Group conducted its business as a single operating segment, being the development, exploration and exploitation of mineral properties. It has engaged in the development of the Gold Project and other exploration projects. All mineral property interests and capital assets are located in China.

24. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

All financial instruments are classified into a defined category, namely, held-to-maturity investments, held-for-trading financial assets, loans and receivables, available-for-sale financial assets, and other financial liabilities.

24.1 Fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of financial instruments represents the amounts that would have been received from or paid to counterparties to settle these instruments. The carrying amount of all financial instruments classified as current approximates their fair value because of the short maturities and normal trade terms of these instruments. The fair value of other financial instruments disclosed in the financial statements are based on the Company's best estimates using present value, quoted market prices and other valuation techniques that are significantly affected by the assumptions used concerning the amounts and timing of estimated cash flows and discount rates which reflect varying degrees of risk.

The following table provides an analysis of financial instruments carried at fair value by level of fair value hierarchy:

Level 1 – Quoted (unadjusted) prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, including:

- Quoted prices for similar assets/liabilities in active markets;

(Express in United States Dollars)

- ♦ Quoted prices for identical or similar assets in non-active markets (few transactions, limited information, non-current prices, high variability over time);
- ♦ Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset/liability (e.g interest rates, yield curves, volatilities, default rates, etc.); and
- ♦ Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by other observable market data.

Level 3 – Unobservable inputs that cannot be corroborated by observable market data.

24.2 Risks arising from financial instruments and risk management

The Group is exposed to various types of market risks, including changes in foreign exchange rates, and interest rates in the normal course of business. The Group's overall risk management program focuses on mitigating these risks on a cost-effective basis. The Group's policy is to use derivatives only for managing existing financial exposures but not for trading or speculative purpose.

24.3 Exchange Rate Risk

The Group generates revenues and incurs expenditures primarily in Canada, Hong Kong and China and is exposed to risk from changes in foreign currency rates. In addition, the Group holds financial assets and liabilities in foreign currencies that expose the Group to foreign exchange risks. A significant change in the currency exchange rates between the United States dollars relative to the Hong Kong dollars, RMB or Canadian dollars could have an effect on the Group's financial position and cash flows. The Group has not hedged its exposure to currency fluctuations.

Many foreign currency exchange transactions involving RMB, including foreign exchange transactions under the Group's capital account, are subject to foreign exchange controls and require the approval of the China State Administration of Foreign Exchange. Developments relating to the Chinese's economy and actions taken by the China government could cause future foreign exchange rates to vary significantly from current or historical rates. The Group cannot predict nor give any assurance of its future stability. Future fluctuations in exchange rates may adversely affect the value, translated or converted into United States dollars of the Group's net assets, net profits and any declared dividends. The Group cannot give any assurance that any future movements in the exchange rates of RMB against the United States dollars and other foreign currencies will not adversely affect its results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

As at March 31, 2013, with other variables unchanged, a 1% strengthening (weakening) of the Chinese RMB against the Canadian dollar would have increased (decreased) net loss and other comprehensive loss both by $0.002 million. No sensitivity analysis is carried out in respect of balances denominated in Hong Kong dollars as the exchange rate between United States dollars and Hong Kong dollars is pegged.

24.4 Credit Risk

The Group is exposed to credit risk with respect to cash equivalents, other receivables, amounts due from investee companies, amounts due from related parties and other financial assets. The maximum exposure is equal to the carrying amount of these assets included on the consolidated statements of financial position. There is a concentration of credit risk arising from the convertible bonds issued by China Daye stated at $26,620,721 as at March 31, 2013. Management believes that the risk of credit loss on the convertible bonds is minimal as the issuer of the convertible bonds is a Hong Kong listed company. The cash equivalents are call deposits at banks or time deposit of terms less than 90 days. None of the cash equivalents are in asset backed commercial paper products. The Group has deposited the cash equivalents in banks that meet minimum requirements for quality and liquidity as stipulated by the Company's Board of Directors. Management believes the risk of loss to be remote.

24.5 Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group may encounter difficulties in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. As at March 31, 2013, the Group was holding cash and cash equivalents of $38,922,210. The Group has determined that its cash and cash equivalents is more than sufficient to fund its requirements for investments in working capital and capital assets. The financial liabilities of $30,226,697 (December 31, 2012: $33,246,467) are due within one year.

24.6 Interest Risk

As the Group has no significant variable interest-bearing assets and liabilities, the Group's income and operating cash flows are substantially independent of changes in market interest rate.

25. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Group's objectives of capital management are intended to safeguard the entity's ability to support the Group's normal operating requirement on an ongoing basis, continue the development, exploration and exploitation of its mineral properties, and support any expansionary plans. The capital of the Group amounted to $87,171,299 consists of the items included in equity. The Board of Directors does not establish a quantitative return on capital criteria for management but promotes year-over-year sustainable earnings growth targets. The Group manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets.

The Group is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

26. EVENTS AFTER THE YEAR REPORTING DATE

26.1 For the period from April 1, 2013 to May 30, 2013, a total of 156,500 common shares were repurchased at an aggregate cost of $84,684 (CAD84,684). All shares repurchased will be returned to treasury for cancellation.

26.2 On May 16, 2013, GobiMin declared an annual dividend of $0.01 (CAD0.01) per share in accordance with its dividend policy and the 2012 performance. The dividend will be payable on June 24, 2013 to shareholders of record on May 29, 2013.

3. Business Summary and Development

3.1. Gold Project in Xinjiang

The Group owns a 70% equity interest in Xinjiang Tongyuan Minerals Ltd. ("Tongyuan") which is developing and operating the Gold Project.

(a) NI 43-101 Resource Estimate

The NI 43-101 compliant resource estimate update prepared by Mr. Neil Gow and Mr. Reno Pressacco of RPA Inc., the Qualified Persons as defined in NI 43-101, was published in May 2013. At a cut-off grade of 1.0 grams/tonne gold, its Zone IV and Zone I are estimated to contain a total of about 20 million tonnes at an average grade of 1.90 grams/tonne Au (about 1.24 million contained oz Au) in the Measured and Indicated Resources category and an additional amount of about 33 million tonnes averaging 1.47 grams/tonne Au (about 1.6 million contained oz Au) in the Inferred Resources category. The drilling in 2012 has increased the confidence in the mineral resource estimate at the Sawayaerdun deposit with a certain quantity of the resource upgraded to the measured category and the grade has been enhanced accordingly. The full report can be viewed at www.sedar.com and the Company's website at www.gobimin.com.

(b) Commitments

As at March 31, 2013, Tongyuan has commitments of $6.1 million (RMB37.8 million) for the further development of the Gold Project including the drilling and exploration service, construction of an office building and design of mine and related facilities.

(c) Update

Due to the winter weather conditions, the 2013 drilling campaign of 12,000 meters and mine development has only commenced in early May 2013. GobiMin will continue to pursue the major design and construction including mine development, tailing ponds, camp facilities and access roads in preparation for the trial and commercial production.

GobiMin estimates that the Gold Project has now achieved a sufficiently advanced stage of exploration to warrant negotiations with potential investors for co-operation or disposal of an equity interest in the Gold Project. Early-stage negotiations also involve additional financing in order to accelerate the construction phase of the Gold Project.

3.2. Silver Operation

The Group holds an equity interest of 48.02% in China Precision which engages in metal trading and processing, predominantly in silver. China Precision has established a small processing workshop in Hong Kong for silver processing and refining into bars and granules for sale to industrial customers.

(a) Update

The Group has made advances to China Precision from time to time to finance its silver inventory. As at March 31, 2013, amounts due from China Precision to the Group amounted to $4.0 million while China Precision had a silver inventory of 5.2 tonnes with a market value of $4.5 million. The Group recorded interest income of $24,238 on these advances for the three months ended March 31, 2013. China Precision had a net profit of about $0.32 million for the period, with GobiMin's share amounting to $0.15 million.

3.3. Base Metal Exploration Projects in Xinjiang

(a) Four Exploration Companies

The Group owns 40%-50% equity interests in four exploration companies in Xinjiang, China for nickel, copper, and gold, of which three are treated as associates of the Group and one as a joint venture. The net cost of the investment in these four exploration companies amounted to $2.1 million (RMB13,365,779). The carrying value of these companies as at March 31, 2013 was $2.0 million (RMB12,611,558).

Among the projects of the four exploration companies, two projects located in Hejing and Nileke showed good indication of copper mineralization. Exploration works on these projects will be continued. New exploration company(s) may be formed in cooperation with local partners for other potential exploration projects.

(b) Yanxi Copper Property

Pursuant to the share transfer agreement dated July 14, 2010 and various supplemental agreements entered into with China Daye Non-Ferrous Metals Mining Limited, a public company with its shares listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (HKEx Stock Code: 661) ("China Daye"), the total consideration for the transfer of 80% of the Yanxi Copper Property together with an area which is adjacent to the Property (the "New Area") was $44.2 million (HK$343,160,440). Among the equity interest disposed, 32% was held by GobiMin and the remaining 48% was held by two local partners.

The total consideration comprised (i) the consideration for the Yanxi Copper Property of $33.3 million (HK$259,000,000); and (ii) the additional consideration for the New Area (the "Additional Consideration") of $10.8 million (HK$84,160,440) based on the resource estimate of the New Area.

As at March 31, 2013, the consideration was settled except for $5.4 million (HK$42,080,220) that was withheld by China Daye to settle the fee related to the application for the mining licence of the New Area (the "New Mining Licence"). The balance, if any, will be payable in cash by China Daye upon obtaining the New Mining Licence. GobiMin is entitled to 40% of the balance payment.

The Group is responsible for applying for the New Mining Licence on or before June 2014. The application for the New Mining Licence is in process and GobiMin is liaising with the relevant government departments to facilitate the application to meet the deadline.

3.4. Normal Course Issuer Bid

On January 16, 2013, GobiMin announced the renewal of its normal course issuer bid to repurchase an additional 2,973,324 common shares, representing approximately 5% of the then common shares outstanding. Purchases are expected to be made in accordance with applicable regulations over a maximum period of 12 months ending January 31, 2014. During the quarter ended March 31, 2013, a total of 93,500 common shares were repurchased at an aggregate cost of $52,126 (CAD52,126). For the period from April 1, 2013 to May 30, 2013, a total of 156,500 common shares were repurchased at an aggregate cost of $84,684 (CAD 84,684). All shares repurchased will be returned to treasury for cancellation.

Management believes that the repurchase by the Company of its own shares can maximize shareholder value and is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders. A copy of the related Notice of Intention to Make a Normal Course Issuer Bid for 2013 shall be provided to shareholders upon receipt of written request to the Company at its registered office.

3.5. Liquidity and Capital Resources

As at March 31, 2013, the Group had a working capital of about $45.0 million (December 31, 2012: $45.9 million), after netting off its current assets of $75.2 million (December 31, 2012: $79.1 million) with current liabilities of $30.2 million (December 31, 2012: $33.2 million).

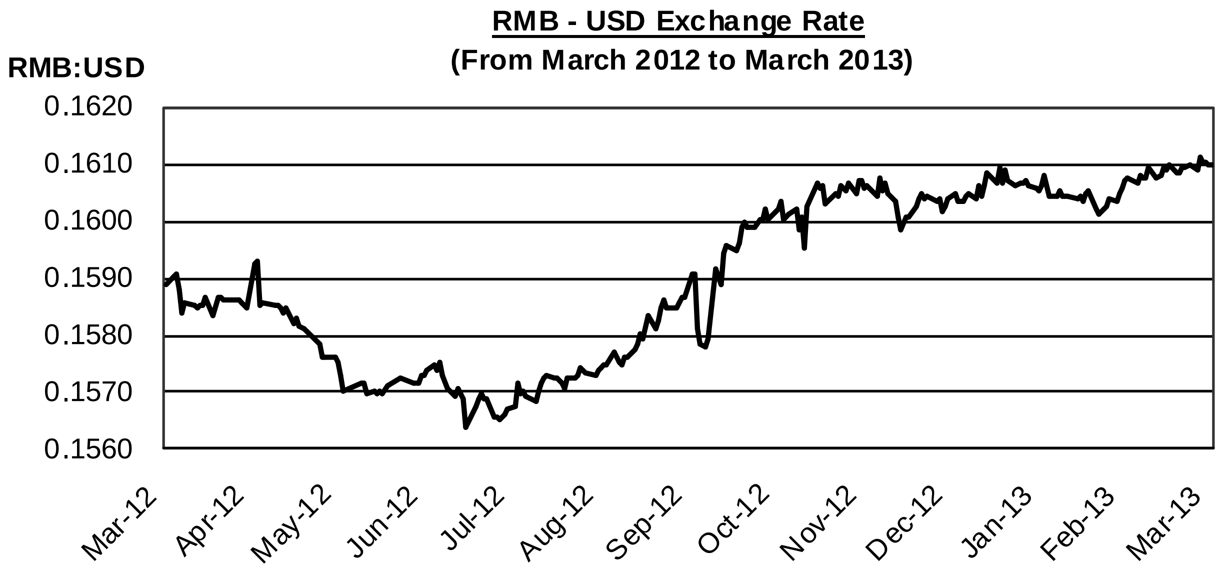
Among the cash and cash equivalents of $38.9 million, about $18.9 million are held in China. The subsidiaries in China are allowed to transfer funds to other Group companies outside China upon presentation of the proper documentation under current regulations, subject to the risks outlined hereinafter under the section "Risk Factors". The Group will carefully plan ahead to match the available funding with various payment obligations in China and elsewhere.

The Group has no difficulties in meeting obligations associated with its financial liabilities. The Group has determined that its cash and cash equivalents will be more than sufficient to fund its requirements, including the current capital commitments of the Gold Project of approximately $6.1 million and the acquisition of an office in Hong Kong of $5.4 million.

4. Key Economic Trends

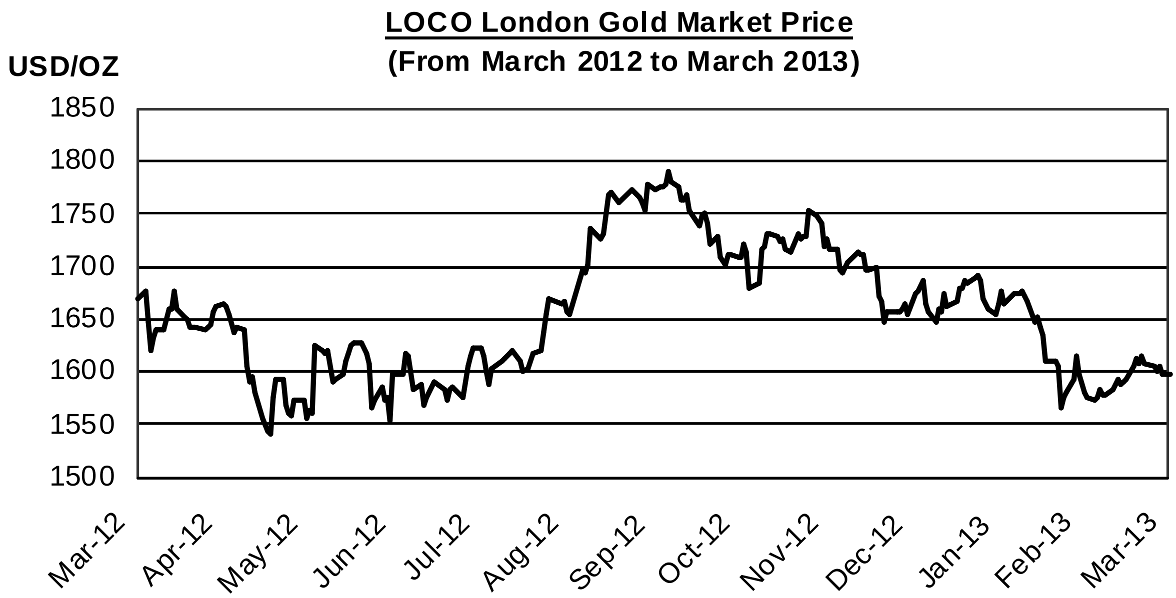
4.1. China Economy

Since GobiMin's activities are mostly conducted in China, the condition of the Chinese economy is a key factor on the Group's exploration business. Currency fluctuations may also have an impact on the Group's cost structure as the Group reports in U.S. dollars. For the quarter ended March 31, 2013, the Chinese Renminbi ("RMB") appreciated by 1.35% against the U.S. dollar comparing with the exchange rate on March 31, 2012.



4.2. Gold Market

The price of gold has a strong influence on the Gold Project's value. For the quarter ended March 31, 2013, the gold price has decreased by around 4.65% against the price on December 28, 2012 (last trading date of December 2012), to $1,597.5 per ounce and the price of gold has further decreased significantly to $1,381.12 per ounce as of May 28, 2013.



5. Critical Accounting Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported results. Changes to these estimates could materially impact the audited consolidated financial statements. The estimates made by the Group that are considered to be most critical are described below.

5.1. Exploration and Evaluation Assets

The application of the Group's accounting policy for exploration and evaluation expenditure requires judgment in determining whether it is likely that future economic benefits will flow to the Group, which may be based on assumptions about future events or circumstances. Judgments made may change if new information becomes available. If, after expenditure is capitalized, information becomes available suggesting that the recovery of expenditure is unlikely, the amount capitalized is written off in the statement of comprehensive income in the year the new information becomes available. The Company has determined that there is no indicator of impairment for the expenditure capitalized as at the reporting date.

5.2. Income Taxes

There are many transactions and calculations undertaken during the ordinary course of business for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. The Group recognizes liabilities and contingencies for anticipated tax audit issues based on the Group's current understanding of the applicable tax law. For matters where it is probable that an adjustment will be made, the Group records its best estimate of the tax liability including the related interest and penalties in the current tax provision. Management believes they have adequately provided for the probable outcome of these matters; however, the final outcome may result in a materially different outcome than the amount included in the tax liabilities.

5.3. Share-based Payment Transactions

The Company measures the cost of equity-settled transactions with employees by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments at the date at which they are granted. Estimating fair value for share-based payment transactions requires determining the most appropriate valuation model, which is dependent on the terms and conditions of the grant. This estimate also requires determining the most appropriate inputs to the valuation model including the expected life of the stock option, volatility and dividend yield and making assumptions about them.

5.4. Functional currency

The determination the functional currency for the Company's subsidiaries, joint venture and associates is a significant judgement. The determination of functional currency requires the Company to assess the primary economic environment in which each of these entities operations and affects how the Company translates foreign currency balances and transactions.

5.5. Impairment

Non-financial assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts exceed their recoverable amounts and are subject to judgment. Judgment is required in establishing whether there are indicators of impairment related to these assets such as changes in market price, the extent or manner in which it is being used or in its physical condition, operations and business environment.

5.6. Development stage of a mine

When the technical feasibility and commercial viability of extracting mineral resources become demonstrable, previously recognized exploration and evaluation assets are reclassified as mining structures and mineral properties under property, plant, and equipment. The determination of when technical feasibility and commercial viability is achieved is subject to significant judgment.

5.7. Production stage of a mine

The determination of the date on which a mine enters production stage is a significant judgment since capitalization of certain costs ceases upon entering production. As mine is constructed, costs incurred are capitalized and proceeds from mineral sales are offset against the capitalized costs. This continues until the mine is available for use in the manner intended by management which requires significant judgment in its determination.

5.8. Estimate of rehabilitation provision

Management assesses its provision for rehabilitation at the end of each reporting period. This includes the assessment of any changes to government regulations, estimation of future rehabilitation costs, the timing of these expenditures, and the impact of changes in discount rates and foreign exchange rates. The actual future expenditure may differ from the amounts currently provided if the estimates made are significantly different from the actual results or if there are significant changes in environmental and/or regulatory requirements in the future.

6. Future Changes in Significant Accounting Policies

Standards issued but not yet effective up to the date of issuance of the Group's consolidated financial statements are listed below. The Group intends to adopt these standards when they become effective.

6.1. IFRS 9 Financial Instruments: Classification and Measurement

IFRS 9 was issued in October 2010. This standard is the first step in the process to replace IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement. IFRS 9 introduces new requirements for recognising, derecognising, classifying and measuring assets and liabilities, which may affect the Group's accounting for its financial assets. IFRS 9 is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2015, with earlier application permitted. The Group is currently evaluating the impact of adoption of this new standard on its consolidated financial statements.

6.2. Amendments to IAS 32– Offsetting Financial Assets and Liabilities

This standard clarifies that a legally enforceable right to set-off exists if the right is not contingent on a future event, and is enforceable both in the normal course of business and in default, insolvency or bankruptcy of all parties to the liability. We are not able at this time to reasonably estimate the impact of the IAS 32 amendments.

The cash outflow in this quarter mainly represents the payment for the acquisition of an office in Hong Kong of $1.1 million netting off the interest received of $0.1 million (Q1 2012: $0.2 million), dividend received from an associate of $0.1 million (Q1 2012: $0.1 million) and the proceeds received from the disposal of a motor vehicle of $0.1 million (Q1 2012: $0.4 million).

10. Statements of Financial Position

10.1. Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Group had approximately $38.9 million in cash and cash equivalents as at March 31, 2013, compared to $46.6 million as at December 31, 2012. The decrease of $7.7 million was mainly the combined effect of a $2.0 million advance to China Precision; the $1.1 million payment for the acquisition of an office in Hong Kong; $0.7 million in deferred expenditure incurred for the mining licence application of the Yanxi Copper Property; payments for the Gold Project of $2.3 million and the payment for office expenses and settlement of other payables of $1.4 million.

10.2. Exploration and Evaluation Assets

All the exploration and evaluation assets are related to the Gold Project, including mining rights, geological and geophysical costs, mine site and facilities construction, drilling and exploration expenses. For the quarter ended March 31, 2013, additions in exploration and evaluation assets amounted to $0.1 million.

10.3. Prepayments, deposits and other receivables

As at March 31, 2013, the balance of deposits are mainly contributed by the following:

a) A deposit of $1.5 million (December 31, 2012: $1.5 million) was paid for construction work of the office building, mine design and related facilities of the Gold Project.

b) A deposit of $0.6 million (December 31, 2012: Nil) was paid for the acquisition of an office in Hong Kong.

10.4. Deferred Expenditure

Pursuant to the supplemental agreement dated May 31, 2012 in relation to the disposal of Yanxi Copper Property, the Group was entitled to an additional consideration of $10.8 million based on the resource estimate of the New Area. In return, the Group is responsible for applying for a mining licence for the New Area. The licence should be obtained on or before June 30, 2014. At March 31, 2013, the Group had incurred expenditures of $2.7 million (December 31, 2012: $2.1 million) in relation to the mining licence application and this expenditure was recognized as deferred expenditure in the statement of financial position.

10.5. Other Financial Assets

Part of these financial assets represent the Convertible Bonds with a principal amount of $28.3 million (HK$220,000,000) issued by China Daye as partial consideration for the disposal of the equity interest in the Yanxi Copper Property. The Convertible Bonds are stated at $26.6 million (December 31, 2012: $26.6 million) as at March 31, 2013 based on their fair value as determined by an independent professional valuator as at December 31, 2012. These bonds are convertible into common shares of China Daye on or before their maturity date of December 31, 2013 at a price of $0.068 (HK$0.528) and bear interest at the rate of 1% per annum for the period from July 22, 2010 to July 22, 2012 if the Group does not exercise the conversion before the maturity date.

The remaining balance represents the $1.0 million listed debentures and the 8% indirect unlisted equity interest in Tongxing of $3.3 million.

10.6. Other Payables, Receipts in Advance and Accrued Liabilities

As at March 31, 2013, the balance of other payables, receipts in advance and accrued liabilities are mainly composed of the payables for the mining licence fee, tax, stamp duty and related payments of $20.0 million arising on the disposal of the Yanxi Copper Property.

10.7. Share Capital

As at March 31, 2013, GobiMin had 59,372,982 common shares issued and outstanding. During the period, 93,500 common shares were repurchased and cancelled.

11. Related Party Transactions

11.1. During the three months ended March 31, 2013, the Group had the following transactions with related parties:

(i) Share-based payment expenses of $36,602 (Q1 2012: $93,741) in respect of options previously granted to directors and key management personnel.
(ii) Fees and other remunerations to directors and key management personnel of $0.1 million (Q1 2012: $0.1 million).
(iii) Rental income of $6,435 (Q1 2012: $6,353) from the office building in Xinjiang received from related parties.
(iv) Gain on disposal of a motor vehicle of $75,194 (Q1 2012: Nil).
(v) Interest income of $24,238 (Q1 2012: $53,191) received from China Precision.
(vi) During the three months ended March, 2012, dividend income of $0.1 million was received from China Precision.

(i) The amounts due from an associate were an advance to China Precision of $4.0 million (December 31, 2012: advance of $2 million and dividend receivable of $61,802). Such advance is unsecured, bear interest at the rate of 2% per annum and due on demand.

(ii) The non-current portion of the deposit paid to related parties included:
(1) A deposit of $80,438 (December 31, 2012: $79,408) paid to the non-controlling shareholder of an associate for the exploration services on its exploration projects.
(2) A deposit of $0.5 million (December 31, 2012: $0.5 million) paid to the non-controlling shareholder of a non-wholly owned subsidiary for exploration services.

12. Capital Commitment

As at March 31, 2013, there were capital commitments of approximately $11.5 million that the Group had contracted, but not provided for. The Group has entered into agreements for exploration services, construction of an office building and mine design and related facilities relating to the Gold Project. The total contracted amount is $16.9 million (RMB104,743,122) of which $10.8 million (RMB66,968,772) was paid with remaining balance of $6.1 million (RMB37,774,350). The Group has also entered into a provisional agreement to acquire an office in Hong Kong at a consideration of $6.0 million (HK$47,000,000) of which a deposit of $0.6 million (HK$4,700,000) was paid with remaining balance of $5.4 million (HK$42,300,000).

13. Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Group does not have any off-balance sheet arrangements.

14. Proposed Transaction

14.1. Yanxi Copper Property - New Area

According to the share transfer agreement dated July 14, 2010 and various supplemental agreements in respect of the disposal of the Yanxi Copper Property, the Group is responsible for applying for the New Mining Licence. The remaining balance of $5.4 million (HK$42,080,220) is withheld by China Daye and will be used to settle the fee related to the application for the New Mining Licence. The balance, if any, will be payable in cash by China Daye upon obtaining the New Mining Licence by June 2014. GobiMin is entitled to 40% of the balance payment (Please see also Note 3.3 (b)).

14.2. Acquisition of an Office in Hong Kong

On March 7, 2013, GobiMin announced that its wholly owned subsidiary has entered into a provisional agreement (the "PA") to acquire an office in Hong Kong (the "Acquisition") from an independent third party together with the existing tenancy at rental income of $13,630 (HK$106,000) per month to be received up to March 31, 2014. The total consideration of the Acquisition is $6.0 million (HK$47,000,000). A deposit of $0.3 million (HK$2,000,000) was paid upon signing of the PA. A further deposit of $0.3 million (HK$2,700,000) was paid on March 12, 2013. The Acquisition will be completed by the end of June 2013 when the balance of the consideration of $5.4 million (HK$42,300,000) will become payable. The office will be used by GobiMin to operate its business and GobiMin will have a rental saving of $0.2 million per annum.

15. Outstanding Share Data

The following table provides information concerning the Company's share capital and convertible securities:

As at	December 31, 2012	March 31, 2013	May 30, 2013
Number of Common Shares Outstanding	59,466,482	59,372,982	59,216,482
Options	2,832,000	2,832,000	2,832,000

16. Risk Factors

The mining business conducted by the Group is subject to a number of risks, including those outlined below. These risk factors could materially affect the Group's future operating results and could cause actual events to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements relating to the Group. Readers should also be aware that there are particular risks of doing business in China, some of which are outlined below.

16.1. Metal Prices

The profitability of the Group may be significantly affected by changes in the market price of metals. Metal prices fluctuate on a daily basis and are affected by numerous factors beyond the control of the Group. Interest rates, inflation, exchange rates and world supply of mineral commodities can all cause fluctuations in the market prices for these metals. Such external economic factors are in turn influenced by changes in international economic growth patterns and political developments.

The Group may apply its free cash balances to metal trading operations. These transactions are by their very nature speculative and could result in GobiMin suffering financial losses.

16.2. Currency Risks

The Group's operating expenses and revenues from operations are in RMB, one of the main currencies used by the Group. Currently, the RMB is linked to the US dollar by exchange rates managed through China's central bank. Accordingly, exchange rate fluctuations with the RMB may adversely affect the Group's financial position and operating results. The Group does not currently engage in foreign currency hedging activities.

Under current regulations, there is no restriction on foreign exchange conversion of the RMB on the current account, although any foreign exchange transaction on the capital account is subject to prior approval from the State Administration of Foreign Exchange ("SAFE") or review by the payment bank in accordance with regulations issued by SAFE. However, even on the current account the RMB is not a freely convertible currency. Foreign invested enterprises in China are currently allowed to repatriate profit to their foreign parents or pay outstanding current account obligations in foreign exchange but must present the proper documentation to a designated foreign exchange bank in order to do so. There is no guarantee that foreign exchange control policies will not be changed so as to require government approval to convert RMB into foreign currency on the current account or repatriate profits. These limitations could affect the ability of the Group to pay dividends, obtain foreign exchange through debt or equity financing, or to obtain foreign exchange for capital expenditures.

16.3. Exploration, Development and Operating Risks

The exploration and development of mineral deposits involves significant risks over a significant period of time, which even with a combination of careful evaluation, experience and knowledge may not be eliminated. Few properties that are explored are ultimately developed into producing mines. Major expenditures may be required to establish mineral reserves through drilling, to develop metallurgical processes and to develop the mining and processing facilities and infrastructure at any site chosen for mining. No assurance can be given that minerals will be discovered in sufficient quantities to justify commercial operations or that funds required for development can be obtained on a timely basis. The economic viability of a mineral deposit depends on many factors, including size, grade, cost of operations, metal prices, cost of processing equipment, continuing access to smelter facilities on acceptable terms, government regulations, land tenure, and environmental protection. The exact effect of these factors cannot be measured but the combinations of these factors may impact the success of the Group's mineral exploration, development and acquisition activities. Even after the commencement of mining operations, such operations may be subject to risks and hazards such as environmental hazards, industrial accidents, cave-ins, rock bursts, unusual or unexpected geological formations, ground control problems and flooding. The occurrence of any of the foregoing could result in damage to or destruction of mineral properties and production facilities, personal injuries, environmental damage, delays or interruptions of production, increases in production costs, monetary losses, legal liability and adverse government action.

It is not always possible to obtain insurance against all such risks and the Group may decide not to insure against certain risks because of high premiums or other reasons. Should such liabilities arise, they could reduce or eliminate any further profitability and result in increasing costs and a decline in the value of the securities of the Group. The Group does not maintain insurance against political or environmental risks.

The Group's properties are generally located in the Xinjiang region, a sector which has in the past experienced seismic activity of six to seven on the Richter scale. Therefore, planning for mines and infrastructures must consider seismicity in the design and there exist a risk that seismic activities may cause significant damages to the Group's infrastructures and operations in the area.

The development of mining properties has inherent risks. The Group may not have sufficient technical or financial resources to complete the projects. Costs over-runs are common in mining projects and may pose a risk for the Group.

16.4. Uncertainty of Ore Reserves and Resource Estimates

There are numerous uncertainties inherent in estimating mineral resources and mineral reserves. Such estimates are a subjective process, and the accuracy of any mineral resources and mineral reserves estimate is a function of the quantity and quality of available data and of the assumptions made and judgments used in engineering and geological interpretation. These amounts are estimates only and the actual level of recovery of minerals from such deposits may be different. Differences between management's assumptions, including economic assumptions such as mineral prices, market conditions and actual events could have a material adverse effect on the Company's mineral reserve and mineral resource estimates, financial position and results of operations.

For some of its properties, the Group may prepare its own mineral reserves and resources estimate only in accordance with the former China Ministry of Geological and Mineral Resources ("CMGMR") classification system. The CMGMR classification system is not compliant with the Canadian Securities Administrators NI 43-101. These figures are only estimates and there cannot be any assurance given that the estimated mineral reserves and resources will be recovered or that they will be recovered at the rates estimated. Mineral reserve and resource estimates are determined based upon assumed commodity prices and operating costs. These factors may in the future render certain mineral reserves and resources unproductive and may ultimately result in a significant reduction in reserves and resources.

16.5. Capital Requirements

The Group does have limited financial resources. Although the Group believes it will be able to fund the development of its mineral properties through existing working capital, and a combination of debt and equity, there can be no assurance the Group will be able to raise additional funding if needed. Failure to obtain such additional funding could result in the delay or indefinite postponement of the exploration and development of some of the Group's properties.

16.6. Risks Relating to Conducting Business in China

The business operations of the Group are located in, and the revenues of the Group are derived from activities in, China. Accordingly, the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Group could be significantly and adversely affected by economic, legal, political and social changes in China. Generally, China demonstrates favourable policies towards foreign investments. However, there is no guarantee that current policy trends and the existing economic policy of China will not be changed. A change in policies in China could adversely affect the Group.

China's local, provincial and central authorities exercise a substantial degree of control over the mining industry in China. The Group's operations are subject to Chinese laws, regulations, policies, standards and requirements in relation to, among other things, mine exploration, development, production, taxation, labor standards, occupational health and safety, waste treatment and environmental protection, and operation management. Any changes to these laws, regulations, policies, standards and requirements or to the interpretation or enforcement thereof may restrict the business operations of the Group or increase the Group's operating costs and thus adversely affect the Group's results.

16.7. Permits and Licences

The operations of exploration and mining require specific licences and permits e.g. exploration licence for exploration activities and exploitation licence for exploitation activities. Any changes in regulations imposed by the governments due to any reasons are beyond the control of the Group and may adversely affect its business and its ability or retain title to its property and obtain some of the necessary licences. The changes of regulations may include, but not limited to, varying degrees of those with respect to stricter restrictions on production, price controls, export controls, income taxes, expropriation of property, employment, land use, water use, environmental legislation and mine safety.

GobiMin's exploration and exploitation licences are subject to annual audit by the Department of Land and Resources of Xinjiang, China. In their annual audit, the authorities may consider whether the Group's mining activities have been in compliance with the relevant laws and regulations. If the Group fails to meet the relevant requirements or materially breaches any laws or regulations, it may not pass such audit, in which case it may be subject to penalties in accordance with applicable laws, or be given a deadline to rectify deficiencies, or, in serious cases, have its permits and licences revoked. While the Group has never encountered such problems in the past, there can be no assurance that it will pass future audits. Should permits or licences be suspended or revoked, GobiMin's business and results of operations could be materially affected. The mining licence for the Gold Project was granted for an initial period of 8 years. As at March 31, 2013, the remaining valid period of the mining licence was 5 years. There is no guarantee that such mining licence will be renewed at its expiration.

16.8. Environmental Regulation

The mining operations of the Group are subject to environmental regulations promulgated by relevant governments. The relevant environmental regulations impose restrictions and prohibitions on spills, or handling of various substances produced during mining or processing operations. In addition, approval of environmental impact assessment for certain types of the mining operations are required. In breach of such regulations or failure of the governmental approval may result in the imposition of fines and penalties. The costs of compliance with environmental regulations, such as advanced equipment which is environmental friendly, has the potential to reduce the profitability of future operations.

16.9. Dependence on Key Managerial Employees

The success of the Group is highly dependent upon the continued services of a small number of key managerial employees both in Canada and China, including Mr. Felipe Tan, the Chief Executive Officer of the Company and Mr. Zhang Ming, a Director of the Company and General Manager of the Chinese subsidiary. The Group does not currently maintain key-man life insurance policies on any member of management. Accordingly, the loss of any of these executives could have a material adverse effect on the Group.

16.10. Competition

There is significant and increasing competition within the mining industry for the discovery and acquisition of properties considered having commercial potential. The Group competes with other mining companies, some of which have greater financial resources, and as a result, the Group may not be able to acquire mineral interests on terms it considers acceptable. As well, the Group competes for the recruitment and retention of qualified employees and other personnel. The current economic growth in China and the corresponding creation of a more liquid market for skilled employees may lead to future problems in retaining local Chinese management. As a result of this competition, the Group may not be able to acquire additional mineral interests and hire or retain qualified personnel for its projects.

16.11. Dividend Policy

GobiMin has been declaring and paying an annual dividend to its shareholders since 2005. GobiMin currently intends to continue to pay annual dividends subject to earnings, capital availability and periodic determinations that cash dividends are in the best interest of the Group and our shareholders. Our dividend policy may change from time to time at the discretion of our board of directors and we may or may not continue to declare dividend payments. A change in our dividend policy could have a negative effect on our stock price.

16.12. Joint Ventures

The Group's interests in its mineral properties are usually held through joint venture companies established under and governed by the laws of China. The Group's joint venture partners in China include state-sector entities whose actions and priorities may be dictated by government policies instead of purely commercial considerations. In addition, the Group's activities and results may be affected by problems encountered with or by its joint venture partners.

16.13. Concentration of Credit Risks

The Group is exposed to credit risks with respect to cash equivalents, other receivables, amounts due from associates, amounts due from related parties and other financial assets. The maximum exposure is equal to the carrying amount of these assets included on the consolidated statements of financial position. There is a concentration of credit risk arising from the Convertible Bonds issued by China Daye stated at $26,620,721 as at December 31, 2012. Management believes that the risk of credit loss on the Convertible Bonds is minimal as the issuer of the convertible bonds is a listed company of Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.
